

Equal Employment Opportunity

Pacific Petroleum Products is committed to providing an environment where all of our people are able to develop to their full potential and to contribute to the success of the company.

The company acknowledges that State and Federal Equal Opportunity and Anti-Discrimination legislation constitute a basic standard beyond which the adoption of our Policy, (policy in full is induced in this package), will promote the economic and social well-being of the company and its employees and business associates.

It is the responsibility of everyone in Pacific Petroleum Products to ensure the successful application of the Policy, to recognise discrimination and harassment in any form, and to take action to prevent it occurring.
